FIRST ANNUAL STAG PARTY ENJOYED BY DYNAMOS CLUB

Arthur and Daniel Campbell Are Hosts at Elaborate Gathering Saturday

The first annual stag party of the Glendale Presbyterian Dynamos Club was given Saturday, March 4, at 8 p. m., at the home of Arthur and Daniel Campbell 1750 Highland avenue.

The club members and their friends left by auto from the Presbyterian church and at 8 o'clock were welcomed by the host and hostess in the spacious rooms beautifully decorated by the flower committee of which Gail Kennedy is chairman, in the club's colors—purple and gold crepe paper and Dynamos symbols, pennants and mottoes of the club.

The six piece Dynamos orchestra played the opening number after which the Emanuel Male Quartet of the Bible Institute sang several old fashion melodies.

Business Session.

Earl P. Hammond, president of the club, called the members to order and a short business session was held. He urged greater effort on the part of every member for the future work and development of the club, which is destined to be the greatest organization of its kind in America, he declared.

The Emanuel Quartet and the Dynamos orchestra favored the club with many beautiful selections, while the new members were initiated by C. G. Farrow Jr., Edward Smith and E. P. Hammond. The new members: Joe Maier, Gail Kennedy, Glen Todd, Harold Parker, Daryl Parker, Howard Warthman, Lee Warthman and Samuel Tupper. The new ones were voted into the club and given certificates of membership and an individual constitution. The club's teacher and superintendent, D. L. Foster, received the new members by explaining the duties and responsibilities of a Dynamos member and urged them to take up their duties as a full fledged member.

Dr. Anderson physician and surgeon of Glendale, was introduced by the president and gave a most interesting talk on self preservation and duty to God.

Miss Myra Johns and Miss Ethel Campbell assisted Mrs. Campbell in serving dynamic punch and wafers.

R. Floyd of Glendale favored the club by a saxophone solo which was followed by a snappy community sing led by the male quartet and also a special selection by the quartet. Mr. and Mrs. Campbell expressed their joy in having the club as their guests.

The social committee of which Lee Roy Mason is chairman, and so ably assisted by Miss Hohns and Campbell, served French vanilla ice cream with the club's symbol—the purple Greek triangle in the center, with delicious cake. While this was being devoured the orchestra filled the room with melodious airs.

After the Emanuel Quartet sang several sacred songs, Rev. Tinning gave a short message from the word of God and closed with prayer.

Earl P. Hammond called for a vote of thanks for Mr. and Mrs. Campbell, the Emanuel Quartet, Dynamos orchestra and all who assisted in making the first stag party a huge success.

Mrs. Jack Lundregan At Social Gathering

Mrs. Jack Lundregan of 308 East Maple avenue, was one of a number of guests who attended a very pleasant afternoon affair last Saturday, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Grogan, 2225 Morcom Street, Los Angeles. Mrs. Grogan, assisted by Mrs. Grace Hedderich of the Aristo Apartments on Rampart, entertained in honor of her sister of San Francisco, an accomplished reader, who contributed greatly to the pleasure of the afternoon by some very entertaining monologues. The Grogan home is built on 70 ft of terrace hills, and the guests were entertained in the beautiful sun-parlor, where they enjoyed a magnificent view of Beverly Hills, Santa Monica and the Pacific Ocean. The guests who numbered approximately fifty, were with few exceptions, former residents of North Dakota.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Merry, who recently sold their home on Milford street with the intention of moving to Eagle Rock, have decided to remain in Glendale and have located at 429 West Doran street.

SHOULD CHILDREN STAY OUT OF SCHOOL TILL AT LEAST 10 YEARS OLD? LOCAL EDUCATORS ANSWER

Luther Burbank Would Treat Young People Just Like Plants

SANTA ROSA, March 6.—Luther Burbank, plant wizard, who will celebrate his 73rd birthday Tuesday, in an address last night at a mass meeting in his honor advocated use of the lessons of plant life in rearing children.

"I am convinced," said the creator of thousands of new plants and trees, "that the same treatment and care necessary to the highest development of plant life is also essential to the highest development of human life."

"All animal life is sensitive to environment, but of all living things the child is the most sensitive. Surroundings act upon us as the outside world acts upon the plate of a camera."

"No boy or girl should be permitted to see the inside of a schoolhouse until he or she is at least 10 years of age. I am speaking now of the boy or girl who has the privilege of being reared in the only place that is truly fit to bring up a boy or plant—the country, the small town, the nearer to nature the better."

Reared in Love.
"Not only would I have a child reared for the first ten years of its life in the open, in close touch with nature, a barefoot boy, with all that implies for physical stamina, but I would have him reared in love. In the successful cultivation of plants there must be absolute honesty. You cannot deceive nature or thwart her without the consequences falling back on your own head. Be honest with the child."

"The wave of public dishonesty which seems to be sweeping over the country is chiefly due to the lack of proper training—breeding if you please—in the formative years of life."

Fellowship Dinner to Be Held on Thursday Night

A fellowship dinner for all the men of the Presbyterian church and their friends will be given in the church parlors, Thursday, March 9, at 6:30 p. m.

C. A. Gummere of the Cleveland Discourt coming, who among those who know him, is rated as a "lively wire." His subject will be "The Old Time Gospel for The Present Day Man."

The music and social committees, under the direction of L. A. Hart and Howard Lennox announce that Mr. and Mrs. Keith L. Brooks, Mr. and Mrs. B. M. Winder and the Dynamos Club Orchestra will provide the music of the evening.

Reservations must be made by Tuesday night, March 7. Phone Glendale 2136 M.

Arthur G. Lindley Is Preparing Church Plans

Arthur G. Lindley, architect of 123 South Belmont street, is preparing preliminary plans for a two story and basement concrete church building for the Las Vegas, N. M., Methodist church. It will be of mission design and include all of the modernities, such as a graded Sunday School department and kitchen. The cost is estimated at $35,000.

Mr. Lindley also is working on plans for a Methodist church at Easton, Calif., near Fresno. It also will have a kitchen and social hall in addition to an auditorium seating 400 people.

E. D. York and Wife Entertain House Guests

Mrs. Harry Pressy of New York and Miss Helen York of Tacoma, Washington, have been house guests at the home of E. D. York and wife, Dr. Margaret York, of 1005 North Central avenue and are now in San Diego for a few days. Mr. York and son and Mrs. Pressy and Miss Helen York enjoyed a motor trip the early part of last week to the Orange Show at San Bernardino. Redlands, Riverside and Santa Ana. On Friday Dr. York entertained with a dinner party in celebration of the birthday anniversary of her daughter, Miss Cynthia York.

Municipal Orchestra Project Is Dropped

The Glendale Municipal orchestra has been discontinued, according to an announcement this morning by John Marquardt, of 110 West Burbach street, its founder, director and organizer.

"A spirit of antagonism toward this well-meant endeavor which I entered a few weeks ago, prompts me to discontinue," stated Mr. Marquardt. "Although I had been given the privilege of using room at the high school, I found that preparations were never made except for the first rehearsal. A few members of the orchestra were quite regular in attending rehearsals, but others failed to see the significance of necessary regularity. Under these circumstances I cannot see why I should waste my energy and money."

George U. Moyse And Richardson D. White Express Opinions

Opinions of local educators were obtained this morning on Luther Burbank's theory that children living under ideal conditions should not see the inside of a school until 10 years of age.

Both George U. Moyse, principal of Glendale Union High school, and Richardson D. White, superintendent of city schools, agree with him in part, as follows:

PRINCIPAL GEORGE U. MOYSE.
"If it were possible to reconstruct the whole educational scheme and have all children enter school at the mature age of 10 years, it would be ideal. But the way some begin at five and one-half in the kindergarten and to have others come in four years older and start in the first grade, it would bring in serious adjustments."

"The schools would have classes of unlike age, unlike physical development and unlike understanding of nature and teachers would be unable to do justice to either group. There is no question but what the person who stays out of doors until 10 years old would, in the long run, surpass people who have started in at five and one-half, because they would have so much better foundation."

"We see here in the high school fight along a group of students who cannot keep up with others in their classes and I am sure they have not had the physical development which enables them to grasp these things the way others do, but a year or six months more of playtime and they would."

Idea Century Old

SUPERINTENDENT RICHARDSON D. WHITE.—"Mr. Burbank advocates an ideal which is a century old. Rousseau, the famous French writer and educator, said something similar when he wrote that every child should live in the woods like a wild animal until 12 years of age. Figuring from a physical standpoint, it would be ideal for the schools would get much stronger pupils to work with. In those four years out in the country it would tend toward the survival of the fittest."

"However, I would have to disagree with Mr. Burbank unless we could change our modern life. Now a child must learn a great deal before he goes to work and he has to go to work at a very early age. Therefore, these demands of citizenship does not permit him to live out in the open until 10 years old."

"Mr. Burbank is an idealist and he is speaking, of course, of ideal conditions, but conditions of modern civilized life are not ideal—a great indictment, indeed. The child must be taught to meet these conditions which are not ideal if he is to survive."

Mrs. Ben Glasscock Gives Children's Party

Mrs. Ben C. Glasscock of 360 West Elk avenue entertained with a children's party Saturday afternoon in celebration of the eighth birthday anniversary of her daughter, Margaret. Decorations were carried out in a color scheme of pink and green.

The guests included Nan Jones, Muriel Curtis, Estelle Taylor, Roberta Hinz, Louise Parker, Lloyd Callahan, Norman Parker, Jack Ledlock, Wyatt Ledlock, Jack Pickett, Edna Glasscock and Margaret Glasscock.

Mrs. Glasscock was assisted in entertaining by Mrs. Oscar Ledlock of Los Angeles.

Winona Campfire Girls Hold Successful Sale

The Winona Campfire Girls, who had a sale of cooked food Saturday, report a very successful day. This was the first effort that these girls have made to raise funds, and they prepared much of the stock themselves. It was necessary to call upon members to make a second supply of candy before noon. They have a nice sum toward the expenses of a camping trip that is planned for early summer. Mrs. Robert Carpenter and Mrs. Whytock superintended the sale and the girls all assisted. They feel that it paid to advertise the sale in The Glendale Evening News.

Glendale Folk Enjoy Fishing Party in Hills

Dr. and Mrs. T. C. Young of 400 North Kenwood street and their guests, Mr. and Mrs. George Kapus and Dr. and Mrs. Wilbur T. Hurt of 215 North Louise street motored to Forest Home in the San Bernardino mountains for the week-end, where they fished in the streams planted to trout.

They got the limit of very fine rainbows, of course, and the snow around the place made the exercise very invigorating, according to members of the party. No wonder people think the fish they catch tastes so much better!

Miss Josephine Emery and Miss Olive Belle Emery were the hostesses of a dancing party at the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. U. Emery, of 329 North Kenwood street, Saturday night.

The color scheme of rose and green was used in the decorations. Indoors rose buds, smilax and other greenery were used and on the large front porch the color scheme was carried out in the greenery and rose colored lights.

During the evening delicious punch, French pastries, candy and nuts were served. Glendale's symphonists, the Gaiety Four, furnished music for dancing. The orchestra was seated in the music room, the other rooms and porch being cleared for dancing.

Today's World News In Brief

(By International News Service to Glendale Evening News)

DAILY HERALD INSISTS HARVEY WILL BE RECALLED
LONDON, March 6.—The Daily Herald today defended the veracity of its recent report that George Harvey will be recalled as American ambassador to the court of St. James. "Wait and see what happens," the newspaper advised its critics.

REDS AND WHITES IN RUSSIA, FIGHTING, REPORTED
LONDON, March 6.—Fighting has broken out between Russian reds and "white forces" on the Amur railway in Siberia, according to an Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Copenhagen today, quoting advices received there.

LULL IN 'WAR' BECAUSE LLOYD GEORGE IS ILL, CLAIM
LONDON, March 6.—Illness of Premier Lloyd George today brought a temporary lull to his violent political battle with the Tory "die hards" in the coalition government, who were trying to effect a settlement. The premier took to his bed suffering from nervous strain and an old bronchial affliction.

DISORDERS IN IRELAND CONTINUE; MANY WOUNDED
BELFAST, March 6.—With two dead and twenty-five wounded in week-end disorders, another outbreak occurred early today, but no further casualties were reported. A bomb was thrown at a group of shipyard workers while on their way to work. Feeling is running high between the Orangemen and the Sinn Feiners and further trouble is expected.

VATICAN AND ITALIAN STATE NOT FULLY RECONCILED

ROME, March 6.—Contrary to views expressed at the time of the election of Pope Pius XI, papal officials now do not expect complete reconciliation between the Vatican and the Italian state during the present pontificate, it was learned on high authority today. It is understood that Cardinal Gasparri, chief leader of the faction favoring reconciliation between the Vatican and the Quirinal, will soon resign as papal secretary.

AMERICAN TOURISTS BRAVE OUTBREAK, ENTER FIUME

MILAN, March 6.—Two thousand Italian soldiers—carabinieri and royal guards—are maintaining order at Fiume today. Funerals of the victims in the recent fighting between the Fascisti (revolutionists) and the police were held on Sunday without any demonstrations. Two hundred American tourists, braving the dangers of warfare in Fiume, ventured into the city and were given an enthusiastic welcome by the populace.

ERUPTION OF MOUNT VESUVIUS CONTINUES TODAY

NAPLES, March 6.—The eruption of the volcano Mount Vesuvius, after an earthquake shock, showed no signs of abating today. Smoke and lava were still belching from the crater. A young American novelist descended into the crater after the earth shock and escaped uninjured. Director Malladra of Vesuvius observatory also descended into the crater to view the inferno and received slight burns.

TOMMY MILTON ESTABLISHES NEW AUTO SPEED MARK

LOS ANGELES, March 6.—Tommy Milton, speed king, with a Durant special, holds a new speed record today for the 250 mile speedway at Beverly Hills after rocketing around the death course yesterday afternoon at an average speed of 110.8 miles an hour. He negotiated the course in two hours, fifteen minutes, twenty-nine and nine-hundredths seconds. The former record of 109.8 miles an hour for the same course was held by Eddie Hearne. If Milton could have traveled but a tenth of a mile per hour faster he would have equalled the world's record held by Jimmy Murphy for a 250 mile course. Jimmy Murphy and Eddie Hartz, members of the famous Duesenberg team, copped second and third places with but three feet between them at the finish. Frank Elliott, piloting a Leach special, took fourth money. There was not an accident to mar the day, and but for Joe Thomas blowing a tire in the 187th lap there was no thrill for the thousands of rabid fans that saw the classic.

RAILROADS ARE ENDEAVORING TO BRING DOWN WAGES

CHICAGO, March 6.—Railroads today began a drive to bring down wages of their employees when hearings on application for wage reductions by almost every rail transportation system in the country were begun before the United States railway labor board. Nearly all classes of employees are included in some portion of the hearings, except the "Big Four" brotherhoods and the switchmen, who are negotiating directly with the roads. The railroads are endeavoring to take away the remainder of the increases given two years ago. The last cut allowed by the labor board took away a large part of this increase. Representatives of the employees were on hand as the hearings opened to make a vigorous fight against the reduction of existing wages. B. M. Jewell, head of the railway employees' department of the American Federation of Labor, whose membership is chiefly affected, and Attorney Frank P. Walsh, will handle the case for the employees.

DID SANDS WRITE 'CONFESSION' IN TAYLOR CASE?

LOS ANGELES, March 6.—A startling theory that Edward F. Sands, missing secretary of William Desmond Taylor, slain film director, wrote the confession letter received by Los Angeles police in an effort to divert suspicion from himself caused police authorities to plunge today into a new investigation of the now famous murder mystery. Coincident with the revelation of this theory, it was disclosed that Sands was believed to have been in Hartford, Conn., two weeks ago. Police said that the confession letter was received from a small town in Connecticut. Authorities of the eastern state were asked today by Los Angeles police to seek to locate the man suspected of being Sands. It was said that the man believed to be the missing director's secretary registered at a hotel in Hartford as of San Francisco. Police of Hartford claimed that they ascertained that the man who was at the hotel two weeks ago was the same man who deserted from the naval base at New London during the war and who served in the navy under the name of Schneider.

GREAT PROGRAM OF BUILDING AHEAD FOR GLENDALE

More Than $100,000 Will Be Spent on Brand Business Blocks, Is Estimate

By GIL A. COWAN

Talk with the builders, talk with the architects, talk with the financiers of Glendale today and you will foresee the greatest changes "straight ahead" in the business section of "the fastest growing city in America."

For Brand boulevard there are plans under way for business blocks costing upwards of $100,000—not one, but several. For Broadway, from Central avenue east to Adams street there will be a program of construction this spring and summer equal to all in any previous year.

Much Building Proposed

Many projects are held in confidence by the newspaper man until parties can be brought together on contract and it is easy to truthfully say that the next ninety days will see history written in Glendale. Not to minimize that which is now going on, for there are no less than a dozen structures under way which constitute more than a half million dollars' worth of work.

Industry, too, is marking time until financial conditions will permit the erection of factories here. To the knowledge of the Chamber of Commerce there are four or five projects "ready to go." Machinery, store and office equipment, automobile accessories are among the lines which will be among the new manufacturing to be established here.

Much Work Is Ahead

To meet the population demand which will come with the increased business and industrial activity of this section, the home building contractors are making plans for a strenuous campaign. Casual conversations with carpenters, painters, electrical workers and others indicate that they have work ahead for the month and even longer in many instances.

Another indication of the prosperity existing here is indicated by the fact that ninety-six per cent of the merchants and professional men have all the business they can attend to. It is the most encouraging spring in Glendale's history, according to everyone you meet.

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery Entertains for Cast

Mrs. A. H. Montgomery of 415 South Central avenue, curator of the Shakespeare section of the Tuesday Afternoon club, entertained the members of the cast of "A Midsummer Night's Dream," which was recently given by that section, and their husbands and friends at a very delightful "500" party at her home Saturday night. First prizes were awarded to Mrs. Walter Jones and Mr. E. King, and second prizes to Mrs. R. Hurst and W. Hoopes. During the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Those present included Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ayars, Mr. and Mrs. E. King, Mr. and Mrs. William Hoopes of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Chester Kling, Dr. and Mrs. Colin Cable, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Hest, Mrs. H. W. Ralston and Miss Esther Ralston, Mr. Stevenson, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lockwood, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Puffer, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Whiting, Mrs. Hunter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hurst, Mr. and Mrs. Bert Ward, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Jones, and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Montgomery.

Tropico C. E. Society Holds Home Meeting

The C. E. Society of the Tropico Presbyterian church, held a very interesting "Home Meeting" Sunday night, devoting the lesson hour to a study of home making in general. The room was furnished temporarily with reed furniture, and made quite homelike with flowers. Miss Nancy St. Clair was leader. Mrs. E. H. Ralston, Miss Fern Peters, retiring secretary of Glendale District C. E. and Orrin Barnes, newly elected intermediate superintendent, very ably assisted in the discussion of home influence, gave short enthusiastic talks on the convention at Hollywood, that is scheduled for March 17, 18 and 19.

Friends Meet Again After Thirty-four Years

A separation of thirty-four years did not prevent Mrs. W. F. Richardson of 611 East Broadway from recognizing Mrs. Charles F. Works of Detroit, when she called upon her recently. Both attended school together in Garretttsville, O., and later taught in the same school. Mrs. Works is spending the winter in southern California.

ELKS TO NAME OFFICERS

Election of officers for the coming year will be the principal business at the regular weekly meeting tonight of Glendale Lodge Number 1289, B. P. O. E., which will take place in the local club rooms. A large number of members are expected to attend.

Flames from the defective flue were quite spectacular but no damage was done and they were soon extinguished by little water. Firemen were absent from Station No. 1 about twenty minutes. of the Yale Brothers Realty Company of 249 North Brand boulevard at 238

Rock, according to H. C. Yale, who

pelled to open an office in this vic-

the office which will be open daily.

WATCH OVER YOUNG PEOPLE, PLEA OF REV. EDMONDS

'Trustees of Our Children,' So Presbyterian Pastor Says
In Sunday's Sermon

"We need to know what our Lord is doing and to that end we need to read with keen attention the daily news of the world, heeding everything that shows His stately step-pings," declared Rev. W. E. Edmonds at the Presbyterian Church yesterday morning during his sermon on "Trusteeship."

"Be an intelligent Christian," he urged. "Know how to think and pray for the world. Let us read our papers on our knees. We are trustees for our country. Citizenship is a solemn responsibility. The times demand extraordinary Christians."

The air is full of trusts. We find ourselves in a world of combinations.
The church is a combination. Paul said that the gospel of glory was given to him and he held it as a trust. It is not a thing to be kept wrapped up, hidden; it is for the every-day good of mankind. We are sure of the dividend. When you become a Christian, thereby you become a trustee. You came into possession of eternal life.

"As believers in the gospel of glory, we are trustees of our children.
God gave them to us; we are responsible. And, also, for the children of the community. The young person, who goes bad, affects the whole community. The future of the rising generation is the most serious question before the church today. The young will go forth and either build up or tear down. The atmosphere of our schools is increasingly becoming materialistic and even hostile to the Bible. Where are the young people going to get their definite Christian training? The church has got to rise up and meet this thing. The amusements of the day are mixed with perils, which we are bound to heed.
And the immediate dress of the maid-ens—what are mothers thinking of?
Trustees we are for the evangelization of the world. From Bethlehem until now the gospel of glory has been pre-eminently a missionary gospel and to face this trust we must have a missionary conscience. Paul said 'I am debtor.' He had something which didn't belong to him, to keep. You are trustee of the gospel, having all its benefits. Pay your debts."

"This particular church has a very distinct responsibility. It is a member of a family, the presbytery, with all its varied work. Above that, the synod and above that is the general assembly; each of us lies under these obligations."

"Since God has for Christ's sake forgiven us and set us in heavenly places we ought to face the world with a missionary heart."

BIG REDUCTION IN OVERLANDS AND WILLYS-KNIGHT

George T. Smith, Local Dealer, Says New Prices Are Effective at Once

Along with the reception tendered
John N. Willys of Willys-Overland, Inc., Toledo, Ohio, at the Alexandria hotel in Los Angeles this noon, George T. Smith, Glendale dealer in these popular cars, was more than pleased to learn of a big reduction in prices which has caused a rush of buyers for Willys-Overland salesrooms.

The new prices which are effective immediately, according to the news brought here by Mr. Willys is $550 for the Overland. One year ago this car sold for $1035. This is considered one of the most radical reductions in motor car prices in the history of the automobile industry.

The Willys-Knight touring car is now listed at $1375, a further reduction of $150 since the startling reduction of 24 per cent made last September, according to Mr. Smith.

Economies In Manufacturing.
These new prices were made possible by remarkable economies in manufacturing methods. Mr. Willys informed the dealers at their luncheon this noon. All high priced materials have been consumed, all obligations for wartime costs have been eliminated and a new and more economical marketing plan has been installed. Mr. Willys added his factories have a co-operative scheme in action by which the employees build more cars per man each day than almost any other plant.

The powerful, easy-riding Overland offers many advantages; economy of operation; triplex springs, insuring easy riding; three speed and reverse selective transmission; tim-ken bearings; all steel body; baked enamel finish; 34-foot turning radius and what not. To hear Mr. Smith and his sales force reeling off the good points convinces the most skeptical the Overland is worth the price.

The Willys-Knight car, the personal pride of John N. Willys, incorporates the highest grade materials and stands apart from the majority of machines, chiefly because it is motored by the Willys-Knight sleeve-valve engine.

"Its motor improves with use," is the slogan which Mr. Smith's sales force drives home.

Prices on other models will be furnished at 228 South Brand boulevard, or glance at the big advertisement in tonight's edition of The Glendale Evening News and see for yourself how much little money will buy.

There usually is a bird in the bush
if you know how to treat the bush properly.

DWIGHT M. BEGEMAN

Military funeral services will be held at 2:30 tomorrow afternoon,
Tuesday, March 7, 1922, at the Little Church of the Flowers under the auspices of American Legion Post 127 for Dwight Maxwell Begeman, who passed away early yesterday morning at Thornycroft Sanitarium.

Young Begeman was born in Freelandville, Ind., November 17, 1899. After attending grammar school in Glendale, his family moved east to New York City and he enlisted in the navy shortly after the United States entered the war. He trained at Great Lakes, saw convoy duty, and was stationed at the naval base at Brest.

After securing his discharge from the service, Dwight was brought back to Glendale by his step-father, who resigned a lucrative position in the east in order to look after the boy's health. A trip to Phoenix, Ariz., failed to cure his tuberculosis
and last September he became a patient at Thornycroft.

OLIN M. DOW
Olin M. Dow passed on yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at his home at 1223 East Lexington drive at the age of 28 years and 1 day. He was born March 4, 1894, at Portland,
Oregon, and leaves a mother, Mrs.
Susie B. Dow, and three brothers,
Frank E. Dow of Seattle, Charleston
Dow and Gerald Dow of Glendale.

Mr. Dow was a member of the Christian Science church and had attended the Broadway grammar school and also Glendale Union high school for two years. He was a piano tuner by trade and was in the employ of his uncle at the Fitzgerald
Music company in Los Angeles.

Funeral services will be conducted tomorrow morning, March 7, 1922,
at 10 o'clock at the chapel at Grand View Cemetery. Pulliam and Kiefer
Undertaking company in charge.

WORKING ON EAST ELK
Workmen today started on the levelling and grading of the section of East Elk avenue between Adams street and the present terminus of the thoroughfare's paved area just east of Everett street. Following this the street is to be paved and curbed.

Potatoes will bake quickly if they are allowed first to stand in hot water for fifteen minutes.

Willard Battery on Many Prominent Cars

"The Willard is the best battery!"
exclaimed E. W. Cizek of the Cizek
Auto Electric Company, 300 South Brand boulevard, yesterday afternoon. "If I didn't think so, I wouldn't be selling them."

One of the reasons which leads Mr.
Cizek to this belief is the fact that the expert engineers of 194 automobile manufacturers have selected Willard batteries for installation
when the car leaves the factory.

Among the well known cars which are equipped with this brand of batteries are the Auburn, Chevrolet, Dodge, Haynes, Hupmobile, Jordan,
Kissel, Lexington, Marmon, Mercedes, Mitchell, Nash, Oldsmobile, Packard, Paige, Peugeot, Pierce Arrow, Premier, Stanley, Studebaker, Stutz, Sunbeam, Velie and Winton.

DOROTHY PEART IS PROBLEM OF RACES PRIZE WINNER IN ORATORY MEET

Development of the Church Through Recreational and Social Ways Subject

"The Recreational and Social Development of the Church" was the subject with which Miss Dorothy Peart of 801 South Maryland avenue won second place in an oratorical contest Friday night at the First Methodist church in the presence of 400 Epworthians of the Pasadena district. "Let us look for a time at the church of the seventeenth century," suggested Miss Peart. "Its ceremonies, for it was very ceremonious, were pompous and elegant, but extremely irksome to some of the free-minded folk of that day. We see our Pilgrim Fathers leaving this church and striking out toward a simpler institution of their own. As this became more firmly established, it was, indeed, simple, simple to the extent of sincerity. The only music consisted of a few chants, insufficient for their needs and social life within the doors of the church was an unheard-of evil.

Piano Is Installed
 "It was in the eighteenth century that the mind of a genius brought forth the piano. The church as a whole gasped at the idea of installing this instrument. However, as time wore on and people became more educated in the arts of this invention, it became an indispensable addition to the church.

"Then came the pipe organ. Here was another instrument constructed by the devil which the church would never sanction. But again remonstrance was waived aside and the pipe organ took its place beside the piano. Today we have not only the piano and pipe organ, but every orchestral instrument, which God has given man power to invent or to play.

"Between the church and the society of the world there has forever been a wall. Try as she would the church had been unable either to penetrate or to break this down. Now, however, she is beginning to realize the many and great needs of her young people for recreation and cultured intercourse within the church.

"Can she ignore these needs? No, for the reason that she must look to her young men and young women for the future dependable manhood and womanhood of the church.

"The church has opened wide her arms and has called these young people from worldly associations and connections, but most of all she has called and is calling them from worldly vice. The church is fast becoming an organization to which young people are proud to belong. Young and old have at last reached the place where each must lift up and look up the greatest institution of God—the church."

Will Rogers, With Lila Lee as Support, Feature at T. D. L.

Who is "P.K."? The best advice is: Go to the T. D. L. theatre tonight and see "One Glorious Day." This new Paramount comedy which scored a big hit last night has as leading man the famous comedian Will Rogers—and everyone knows that means great comedy. Lila Lee is leading woman.

A fantasy, the story concerns a wandering soul looking for an earthly home—an aggressive spirit named Ek. It enters the body of Ezra Botts, an experimenting professor who has caused his own spirit to temporarily absent itself from his body. The new spirit is an aggressive one and causes the body of Ezra to create a panic among his friends. But it brings him happiness and then creeps out and permits the gentle soul of Ezra to return.

There is also a clever Toonerville comedy, "The Skipper's Last Resort"—a Burton Holmes Travelogue and Kinograms.

Rarely has the screen presented a picture with so many points of universal appeal as are possessed by "The Silent Call." The Laurence Trimble-Jane Murfin production presented by H. O. Davis, which commences a three-day engagement at the T. D. L. theatre Tuesday. The picture has drama galore, several thrilling punch scenes, the beautiful natural background of the High Sierras, a superlative cast of players and a remarkable dog named Strongheart, who is the real hero of the story.

Services Conducted by Rev. J. C. Livingston

"What Are the 'All Things That Work Together for Good?'" was the subject on which Rev. J. C. Livingston, pastor of the Casa Verdugo Methodist church, delivered a sermon at the Sunday morning service. He used as apt illustrations, some very unusual incidents that have come under his personal observation during his sojourn in the west, and touched upon some very striking incidents regarding the "things that worked together" that finally led to the prohibition wave that was swept over parts of the south.

J. B. Clarke of 336 North Maryland avenue gave a fine rendition of the baritone solo, "Save Me O Lord," and "His Eye Is on the Sparrow." The choir rendered the anthem "Give Ear to My Words," in which solo parts were sung by J. B. Clarke and Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Jones.

Present Day Jonahs Topic of Sermon Delivered on Sunday at Central Christian

"Who are the present day Jonahs?" inquired Rev. C. A. Cole last night at the Central Christian church. Rev. Cole discussed "the astonishing peevishness and uncharitableness of Jonah, pride of race, self love and evil eyes cast upon the uplifting of another race." He characterized this attitude as "a curse" and remarked that it was no wonder the New Testament dwelt so much upon brotherly love.

"The east and west have always been related, but they have never liked each other," declared Rev. Cole. "We have our own problems, but a bigger one is how we are going to get on with the rest of the human race. The lordly Americans nickname everyone else. We call people from Italy 'Dagoes'; men of the race Christ belonged to 'Sheenies,' and members of the greatest race on earth 'Chinks.'"

Knows What Is Best
 "There are folks, who have more concern for the potted plants on the porch than the poor people on the pavement; more concern over loss of comfort than over the loss of a soul; more interest in an easy chair than in the meeting. I never knew what to call those folks before. They are 'Jonahs.' One of the striking features is the patience and solicitude of God in this matter. He knows what is best for this old world."

Foreign missions was the topic of discussion at the morning service. Rev. Cole outlined seven reasons why the local church should support the teachings of the gospel in heathen lands.

Hour for Christianity
 According to Rev. Cole, this is the decisive hour of Christianity in foreign fields because the work is enlarging and pleading for more helpers and unentered fields are calling.

"Once the world obligation is laid on a man's heart, there can be no neglect of it without loss of self-respect and collapse of Christian manhood," asserted Rev. Cole. "A worthy part will save the church from littleness, worldliness and sectarianism. The gospel is adequate to save the lost and transform nations. Only through the church giving will the world be reached."

Dr. James F. Winnard Talks at Two Services

Dr. James F. Winnard of 461 Riverdale Drive, pastor of the Mt. Washington Presbyterian church of Los Angeles, was the speaker Sunday, at both morning and evening service at Tronico Presbyterian church. His subject was "An Increased Faith." The subject for the evening "Saving Others; Losing Self," was presented with splendid practical illustrations, with a strong appeal to the church members, when calling to their attention the "every member canvass" that occurs next Sunday, to be just as ready to meet the call, as the firemen, life-savers, doctors and nurses, are ready when they are called out.

C. S. McKee Secures U. S. L. Battery Free

C. S. McKee of 429 W. Wilson street won the U. S. L. Battery advertised to be given away by the Glendale Battery and Ignition Company of 120 S. Maryland avenue, last Saturday. G. M. Lincoln of 237 N. Jackson, a recent arrival to Glendale from Kansas, produced the lucky number for Mr. McKee.

H. D. Hamm, manager of Glendale Battery and Ignition Co., says that much interest was evidenced in the giving away of the free battery and that this advertising stunt greatly enlarged his acquaintance of battery owners.

HAVE DARK HAIR AND LOOK YOUNG

Nobody Can Tell When You Darken Gray, Faded Hair With Sage Tea

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.—Advertisement.

SULPHUR SOOTHES UGLY, ITCHING SKIN

The First Application Makes Skin Cool and Comfortable

If you are suffering from eczema or some other torturing, embarrassing skin trouble you may quickly be rid of it by using Menthosulphur, declares a noted skin specialist.

This sulphur preparation, because of its germ destroying properties, seldom fails to quickly subdue itching, even of fiery eczema. The first application makes the skin cool and comfortable. Rash and blotches are healed right up. Menthosulphur is applied like any pleasant cold cream and is perfectly harmless. You can obtain a small jar from any good druggist.—Advertisement.

FASTS HAVE GREAT VALUE, DECLARES DR. H. C. FUNK

Lutheran Pastor, Speaking on Faith as Healing Factor, Expresses His Views

"Faith as a factor in healing disease," was the theme of Dr. H. C. Funk yesterday morning at the First Lutheran church.

"In a former address we held that disease is the devil—that is, Satan is the original cause of all sickness, sin and sorrow," remarked Rev. Funk. "We have shown that men like Milton, Pope and Carlyle rose above their suffering and became benefactors to their fellowmen. That does not prove, however, that the Almighty sent these afflictions upon them either as a punishment or a form of discipline.

"No earthly parent would afflict his own child with cancer or tuberculosis as a punishment. The history of disease does show that God is merciful and that He bestows His grace and the strength to endure and to overcome these baneful influences. Sin and suffering are in the world as a result of the fall. Yet God will not permit us to be tried beyond that which we are able to bear. He will often bring good out of evil. Yes, the wrath of man is often made to praise God and so suffering may become the refiner's fire, that separates the gold from the dross.

Admit Their Reality

"You will observe that our teaching is in no wise to be compared to those who deny the reality of sin and sickness by declaring them to be illusions. We do, as the Saviour and His disciples did, admit the fact of their awful reality and through faith in the atoning merits of Christ strive to overcome them.

"Christ is the divine healer. The prophecies made clear this truth. Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped. Then shall the lame man leap as a hart and the dumb shall sing. And in Luke we have the fulfillment: 'Then Jesus answering said upon them: "Go your way and tell John what things ye have seen and heard—how the blind see, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, to the poor the gospel is preached."

Value of Fasts

Touching on the therapeutic value of religious fasts, Dr. Funk declared that heavy meat eaters must have their coffee and that they also want their wine and cigars because much meat produces a "demon thirst" and the stimulants, which are "poisonous" in themselves counteract the meat-poisoning.

"A religious observance of a fast consisting of abstinence from meat on Wednesday and Friday not only during Lent, but throughout our whole lives," asserted Dr. Funk, "would add to the efficiency of every man and woman."

COMMENT THAT'S ALL

Controversy of Fair Play Merciful World, Indeed Tonic for the Tired Do You Remember When?

By Gil A. Cowan

RESOLUTIONS setting forth the inaccuracy of reports that have spread broadcast throughout the country concerning reports relative to film colony members who have recently "been able to suffer in the eyes of the public and the industry itself placed under a cloud" were dispatched to eastern papers through International News Service and the following paragraphs are worthy of reproduction:

"Many reputable American newspapers sincerely desirous of printing only the truth, but remote from Los Angeles and ignorant of the facts have been imposed upon by the reports.

"As in any other group of 20,000 persons, the approximate number of those now connected with the Los Angeles film industry, there may doubtless be found among the men and women, individuals of undesirable character and disreputable habits. To stigmatize the entire industry and its members for the failings of a few, is a controversy of fair play and an unfair reflection on the citizens of Hollywood, which is an integral part of the city of Los Angeles and a high class residential district." The resolutions were signed by five Los Angeles daily newspapers, J. D. Fredricks, president of the Chamber of Commerce, Ralph Criswell, president of the city council, and George E. Cryer, mayor of Los Angeles.

Drama of the poignant type—the age old story of a prodigal son—had the first scene of its last act laid in a Glendale hospital last week where an aged man passed beyond.

Isaac Slomensky in death did for his son that which he should not have done in life—paved the way for him to be granted probation on a burglary charge, and return to his sorrowing mother in the east.

And in the baggage car of the same train pulling into Chicago to night is the father who died of a broken heart. Physicians declare that the only hope for the mother's life is the sight of the boy—another son having been killed in France.

Indeed, the world is merciful under conditions such as these!

Some day when you are tired of your little world here at home and think there is no past, little present and less future, here is a trip that will serve as a tonic.

First, forget yourself and board a Pacific Electric car for San Pedro. The chances are you will land in the midst of a group of sailors heading back to the homes aboard ship and to hear their chatter about what they saw in the city will make you appreciate a lot of little things which have become commonplace.

Down at the harbor, walk out along the landings and look at the ships and the ocean, talk with the mariners from every port and the first thing you know, you will begin breathing deep, dreaming dreams of foreign fields and by eventide ambition to do greater things will be stirred within you.

I have looked out to the Atlantic, but it is the Pacific with its crudities, undeveloped trade territories, vast expanse of water that almost impels you to "jump overboard" in haste to get something bigger.

And the cost of this inspiring trip is less than the price of a prescription.

The Beverly bowl yesterday presented a very respectable race.

No one was killed or injured and a record crowd enjoyed seeing Tommy Milton shatter the track's record.

Outside of Bordino being beaten, there is little to comment upon unless it was Harry Hartz's plucky race for a place in the sun.

Remember when he piloted a cycle car here for the Elks about eight years ago?

Other people, not so blasé, enjoyed motor trips or picnics yesterday. Picnics are a great week end attraction in southern California.

The good old days back east the annual Sunday school picnic was the event of the year.

James R. Wylie Is Sent to Penitentiary

James R. Wylie, who resided at 467 West Maple street when he was arrested about four months ago and charged with the murder of his sister's new born babe, was sentenced to one to 10 years in the state penitentiary on a manslaughter charge. His attorney, Harry C. Levey, may make an appeal for probation at the end of the year's term.

Jessie Wylie, the sister, was freed. Wylie was employed as a printer by the Southern California Edison Company and brought his sister here from Chicago on account of declining health.

REQUIRED SERVICES IS REV. PRESTON'S SUNDAY TOPIC

Going Across Border Line Big Need in This Day, Is Belief of Minister

"The Reckoning of Service" was the topic yesterday morning of Rev. Harley G. Preston at the Pacific Avenue Methodist church.

"There are pilgrims thirsty from the hot and dusty road to whom we give water from the well," declared Rev. Preston. "It is a very gracious ministry and never to be despised. But do you not think it is mentioned first because it is the least of the ministries and because it makes little or no vital demand to speak of upon those rendering the service? When a hungry person came along the roads of Galilee, it was the ordinary thing to give him bread. And so it was with one, who was faint with thirst in the hot noon. He was taken in as one of the guests of the goodman of the house and offered a refreshing drink from the deep, cool, clean well, which reminds one of the 'old golden bucket.' But the service cost little or nothing at all, when the wanderer turned back into the road again, the incident was soon forgotten.

Makes Vital Demand

"The Lord mentions a ministry that is deeper and more exacting: 'I was sick and ye visited me.' Here is a service which makes a vital demand. We can give bread and never miss it; we can give clothing and not miss that. To visit the sick is to give yourself. That makes it a higher form of ministry in the Kingdom of God.

"I was in prison and ye came unto me.' It is one thing to go to the hospital. It is altogether another thing to go to the prison. The sick one wears only the pale seal of weakness; the prisoner has lost his character. The sick one is isolated from social activity; the prisoner is exiled from social fellowship. The one is pitied; the other banned. Therefore the visitation of the prisoner is mentioned as the crowning ministry because it demands a more courageous sympathy and a more daring sacrifice. To be a friend of the fallen is a more noble friendship than merely to be a friend of the sick.

Across Border Line

"Now to visit the prisoner or people who are broken morally and stained, is to defy many a poor, little, boastful decency which esteems social convenience more than the possible restoration of the children of God. Our Lord was counted out of society by the Pharisees because He crossed the border line and went right after those who had fallen in the gutter and lost their pure and honorable estate. The Pharisees passed them by on the other side, but Jesus had come all the way from Heaven to earth to save just such. To the confessed sinner in the temple, who was ashamed to raise his face to Heaven, He extended pardon but the self-righteous Pharisee, who was so thankful that he was not like the poor Publican, was rejected.

"If Christ had shut Himself up with the self-righteous Scribes and Pharisees and had held Himself aloof from the people, who really needed Him, He would never have helped and saved the world of people He brought to Himself. Yes, this Saviour of ours struck a death blow to a short way stat of a convention and He strode across the social barriers to be the friend of these poor captives of sin."

Owens His Own Home, Doesn't Have to Roam

Here's a great idea in rhyme, even if the meter doesn't register right and The Glendale Evening News is passing it on to you:
C. A. Stuart bought a lot
Not so very long ago.
A little building on the rear
Was home to him. And so
He paid no rent and had no fear
Of landlord telling him to go.
While you and I were hustling
For our rent receipt,
Stuart smiled and pegged along
He had the landlord beat.
And you and I are surely wrong
Until we own our own retreat.

At one two O south Belmont street
The home that Stuart sought
Is going up—five rooms and all,
Go see what rent has bought.
And you and I should cease to stall,
Instead—let's buy a lot.

Plenty of Thrills in Glendale's Feature Film

Thrills, a clever story and excellent emotional acting are well-combined in "Everything For Sale," at the Glendale Theatre again today.

Perhaps the most interesting feature, however, is the appearance of May McAvoy in the stellar role.

In "Everything For Sale," she portrays the reactions of a girl just home from finishing school, who finds that the fashionable ordeal is a wealthy marriage, and that love is for sale like all other commodities.

The dramatic suspense of the play is well-aided by thrilling scenes representing the wreck of a rowboat
and the tossing of the leading man against the rocks—and the struggles of Miss McAvoy against the fumes of gas in a room where she is accidentally imprisoned.

Aside from the melodrama, there is a comedy, news reel and other film attractions.

terest of the Women's Foreign Missionary Society. Mrs. Brown was in active service for several years in China.

"The educational work provides homes and learning for women, boys,

missionary work brings a better
and broader vision."

The offering for missions amount-

a visitor for the week his son, Bonner
Gordon, who arrived yesterday from San Francisco.

Holding your breath is to a certain extent a test of your health. Normally, adults should be able to do this from forty to fifty seconds.

Every lodge contains at least one member whose sole claim to distinction is that he sometimes seconds the motion to adjourn.

BROADWAY HEIGHTS VERY ACTIVE

Broadway Heights, near the intersection of Broadway and Colorado Blvd., Eagle Rock, is very active. In spite of the recent rains the excavation for the Buck Block is now complete and street work progressing rapidly. Material for sidewalks and curbing are now being delivered and the beautiful subdivision becoming
